

Elevator pitches session

Abstracts invited for pitches in one of the following categories:

- Research findings
- Research ideas
- Innovation in research
- Dangerous ideas

Task: 3 minute presentation + 1 minute for questions (speakers will be kept to time limits)

At the end of the presentations, the audience will be asked to vote for their favourite pitch using the MeToo audience responder system (with a small prize awarded to the winner)

	Title	Presenter	Organisation	Category
1	TIA prehospital referral feasibility trial (TIER): recruitment and intervention usage	Chelsey Hampton	WAST	Research findings
2	Validating Secure Anonymised Information Linkage (SAIL) Databank prescriptions for Parkinson's disease (PD) medications.	Khalid Orayj	Swansea University	Research findings
3	Health Checks and After Health Checks Study. Annual health checks for people with learning disabilities: An exploration of experiences, follow up and self-management of health conditions.	Dawn Cavanagh	USW	Research ideas
4	What is a suitable comparator to evidence the impact and cost effectiveness of introducing a novel service within the current healthcare system?	Sue Davies	Cwm Taf UHB	Research ideas
5	Engaging high-risk groups in early lung cancer detection: a qualitative study in the UK's most deprived communities	Julia Hiscock	Cardiff University	Research findings
6	SUPER research – Do you dare say no?	Sian Jones & Mary Nettle	SUPER group	Dangerous ideas
7	Experience of running a pilot trial on role-substitution with General Dental Practitioners	Paul Brocklehurst	Bangor University	Research findings
8	Putting 'Function First' in primary care – a realist evidence synthesis with embedded co-production and co-design	Rebecca Jane-Law	Bangor University	Innovation in research
9	Illness beliefs and treatment beliefs in a lumbar radicular pain population	Robert Goldsmith	Cardiff & Vale UHB	Research findings
10	Towards the development of the WICKED ThinkCancer Intervention; a mixed methods research programme to aid the early diagnosis of cancer	Alun Surgey	Bangor University	Research findings
11	The use of scratchcards for allocation concealment in a prehospital randomised controlled trial	Leigh Keen	WAST	Research findings

